Official letters to the honorable American Congress, written, during the war between the United colonies and Great-Britain, by His Excellency George Washington, commander in chief of the continental forces; now president of the United States. Copied, by special permission, from the original papers preserved in the office of the secretary of state, Philadelphia ... New York, Samuel Campbell, 1796.

The letters cover the period from June 24, 1775, to December 31, 1778. Other volumes, to include the later correspondence of Washington, were projected by the editor, John Carey, but no more were revised.
